

Today in our port are two vessels: "Wind surf" and "Azamara Quest".

First time of this year "Azamara Quest" stays in our port. Vessels sails under the flag of Malta, BRT is 30277,NRT is 11748 and length is 181 m. Last port is Hvar and the next port will be Dubrovnik.

Specifically designed to be smaller and more sleek than most cruise ships, Quest, like her sister ship, Journey, is filled bow-to-stern with wondrous luxuries and appointments that enhance your voyage of discovery - making it one that you won't soon forget.

Quest boasts two specialty restaurants, concierge amenities, our Spa and Wellness Center, piano bar, wine bar, live entertainment, daily enrichment programs (such as evening lectures), and much more. Satisfy your appetite for luxury and adventure on board Quest.

Azamara Quest Ship Profile:

- Year Built: 2000

- Registry: Malta
- Officers: Greek
- Crew: International
- Complement: 407
- Gross Tons: 30,277
- Length (ft.): 593
- Beam (ft.): 95
- Passengers: 694
- Stability Rating: Excellent
- Dinner Seatings: 1
- Cuisine: Continental and International

- Dress Code: Traditional
- Room Service: Yes
- Tipping: $10 pp per day; 15% automatically added to bar checks. Suite butler tip $3.50 pp per day
- Outdoor Pool: Yes
- Hot Tub: Yes
- Fitness Center: Yes
- Spa: Yes
- Beauty Salon: No
- Showroom: Yes
- Bars/Lounges: Yes
- Casino: Yes
- Shops: Yes

- Library: No
- Child Program: Yes
- Self-service Laundry: No
- Elevators: Yes
- Decks: 9
- Suites: 42
- Verandah Cabins: 157
- Outside Doubles: 130
- Inside Doubles: 26
- Singles Cabins: 0
- Singles Surcharge: 150-200%

"Wind surf" today was the anchorage. Last port is the port of Dubrovnik. It is located 183 crew and 228 passengers.