

SEVEN SEAS MARINER

Seven Seas Mariner is a cruise ship for Regent Seven Seas Cruises . She was the first all-suite, all-balcony ship in the world, and was awarded "Ship of the Year" in 2002 by Ocean and Cruise News. Also, she was the first to offer dining by the famous Le Cordon Bleu of Paris in one of the onboard restaurants.

General characteristics:

Type: Cruise ship; BRT Tonnage: 48,075; Length: 216.1 m; Beam: 28.3 m; Decks: 8;
Passengers:697; Crew: 445