

05.05.2012.

The largest passenger ship ever sailed in Kotor is the mega cruise ship Celebrity Solstice, anchored about seven o'clock this morning, and arrived through the agency Boka Adriatic. The ship is 317m long and 67 meters high and BRT 122 000, on board was 4024 people, of which 2814 passengers and 1210 crew members. Construction of the ship started on 23 January 2009 in the Meyer Werft shipyard in Germany, and finished 24th April 2010. It cost 750 million dollars. Is the third in the companys cruise ship Celebrity in the class of Solstice ,and in that class is the cruise ship Celebrity Equinox, and this year is expected to launch cruiser Celebrity Silhouette.

The ship has 17 spacious deck, and the highest is covered with real grass, which include the original golf courses. On board is a wide boulevard in the center and central park, theater, shopping mall. There are also numerous restaurants, bars, duty-free shops, souvenir shops, beauty centers, spa, wellness, and various other attractions in charge of entertaining the passengers. On board there are a number of luxurious cabins and suites equipped with excellent and extensive equipment. The command bridge is equipped with the most modern and professional equipment which allows great versatility board.